

PLEASANTVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Lundo,

Fr

I had a great year in your class and I'm sorry that your leaving. Your class made me take a different look at English and I think that will stay with me for good. I don't think that dedicating a Year Book to you is in anyway enough to repay you for what you have done ~~for~~ for all your students and friends. I think that you made me see myself a little more deeply. My "levity" has ~~keep~~ kept me going strong but later in life it will have to decrease. I wish that there would be no teacher so dedicated as you.

I enjoyed your class and I enjoy your company. I hope to ~~try~~ try to get to Maine or at least write. I hope to see you after you have left, on a person to person basis not student to teacher.

Keep ~~busy~~ busy and don't stop goin' strong.

Jim D'A

P.S. Please don't correct my English in this letter ~~its~~ because its from the Heart.

Mr. W. Lund

W. M. Lund

No phrase or clause of words can express what a gifted and beautiful person you are. I love you.

To Mr. Lund, I am glad that the roadways of you and the gangsters crossed because I know we benefitted for I can spell ben-efit Tom C.

Mr. Lund,

I cannot tell you how much fun this year has been ~~at~~ with you as my teacher. No words can express my thanks for not only my English instruction but for something that I believe I will remember after I have long forgotten what a subordinate clause is! Have a great time and high adventure in the future.

Every Sight

Mr. Lund:

I thank you very much for a most delightful year. I have never learned so much in the course of a year and never have I had so much fun doing it. I hope to see your book in print in the near future.

Thanks again.
Love,
Eric

Thank you for a beautiful year.
Love: John D. Sullivan

Lund,

I have had a good year in your class not that I have had good grades because I haven't, but it was that I learned so much and enjoyed the class so much.

~~I have~~ I have never before this year had a good teacher in the sense of teaching and a friend such as you.

I wish to you sincerely the best of luck in your roads beyond Pleasantville High School. I still I hope you will come back to visit periodically on special occasions such as our graduation.

I hope to come to see you this summer ^{at} ~~my~~ Lund's Corner during my vacation.

Back to the 1st paragraph this year has inspired me to go on trying harder than ever to be something (cont.)

Dear Mr. Lend - When I first came to the high school, all I ever heard about was "Mr. Lend" and how you were the best teacher in the world etc, etc. The first time I saw you, in 9th grade, I was terrified of you. When I found out I was going to have you in 10th grade, I was positive it was going to be a terrible year. Needless to say I was wrong. You are the best teacher I've ever had, the most interesting, and a great guy. I wish you were staying on for our last year, Pleasantville is going to miss you dearly, and will visit you in the fall. Have a great time in Maine

Mr. Lund

It's getting hard to find a spot to write in this yearbook. You seem like a very popular guy and deservedly so. I am only now only beginning to discover how I've wasted this year in English. A teacher and person of your quality is not easily found. However, what I did learn from your talks were things more important. Gratitude fills my heart.

In every chapter of our lives, we each find one person who stands far from the maddening crowd. A person, who in his own way, has sparked the imagination of our minds, broadened our horizons and was there when we needed an honest opinion or sound advice.

The Class of 1978 believes it has found such an individual fulfilling the above and more. He will be leaving P.H.S. undoubtedly ending a chapter in his life as we are. Thus, as a small tribute we dedicate the 1978 Green Quill to William Lund. We wish him the very best of luck and high adventure.

well, what can I say... Thanks abt for giving me more than I have ever received out of one class. You have a true, honest gift and you have put it to good use! I hope to see you sometime in the future..... maybe even in Maine sometime - well, thanks again.

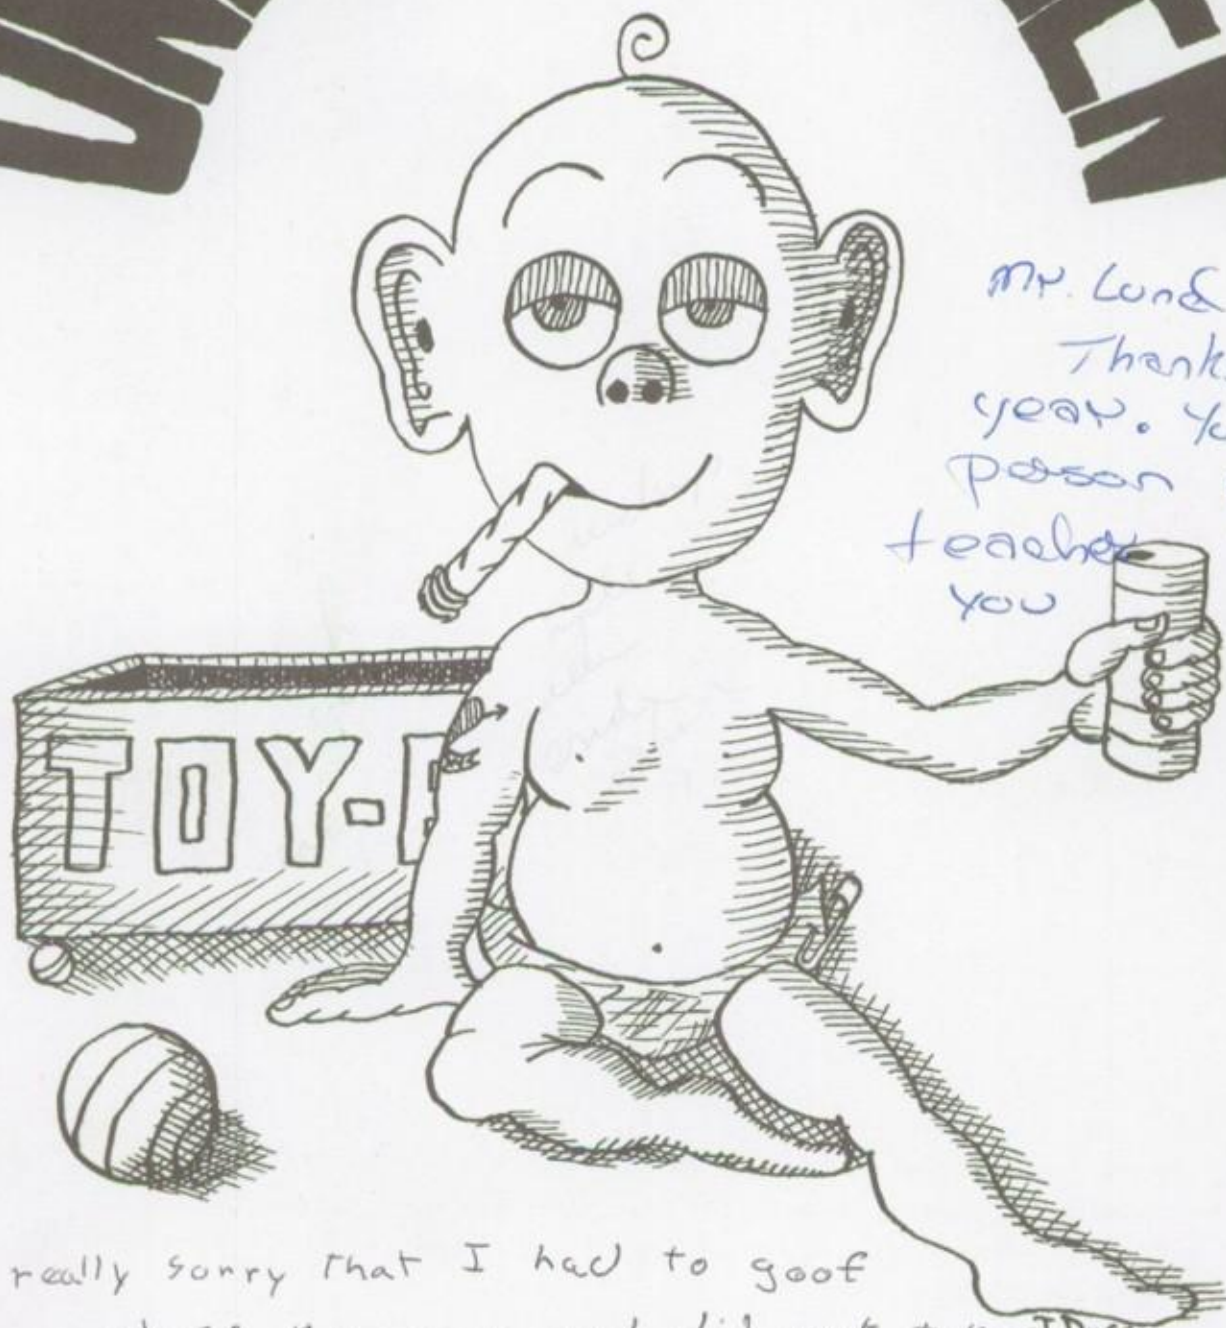

Good Luck-

Mr. Lund-

I'm really sorry that I had to goof off in your class this year and did not take advantage of your virtuosic teaching as much as I should have. But your no exception when it comes to my goofing off. (I do it everywhere)

I hope you will enjoy wherever life's roads + God lead you and that maybe in the future from my experience with you you'll be able to pick out the vipers in your classes more readily!

MANY MANY Wellwishes

Mr. Lund, I enjoyed your class very much this year. Thank you for all the help you have given me. Going to miss you next year. Michael

Dear Mr. Lund,

There are many things to say but the most important is that Pleasantville High School will be lost without your talents and wisdom. You have done many things for many people and also for me. Even if you don't realize it you have helped me in many ways. Other than basic grammar and British Literature - you have made me smile often and more importantly made me think - about life, "living", intellectual matters, and of course love.

You may kid around and act concieted by I know you love life and I hope that your life continues to be interesting, fulfulling, and healthy. Please, ~~do not~~ change (I will only allow you to change for the better!) and also - continue to enrich the lives of all you meet. Mr. William Lund is a "great" man who (now don't ~~let~~ this go to your head - at least not to quickly) should touch many people so that their lives are improved. I hope that your life is in the hakeyan mood at least until that gets to be too boring. I hope Maime + your doggie Shane are in good shape. Once again thank you with all my heart and live the rest of your life to the upmost.

Good luck (though you won't need it)! Please, No aberrations! (I still remember the day you climbed up on the window sill to prove a point.)

With all my love,

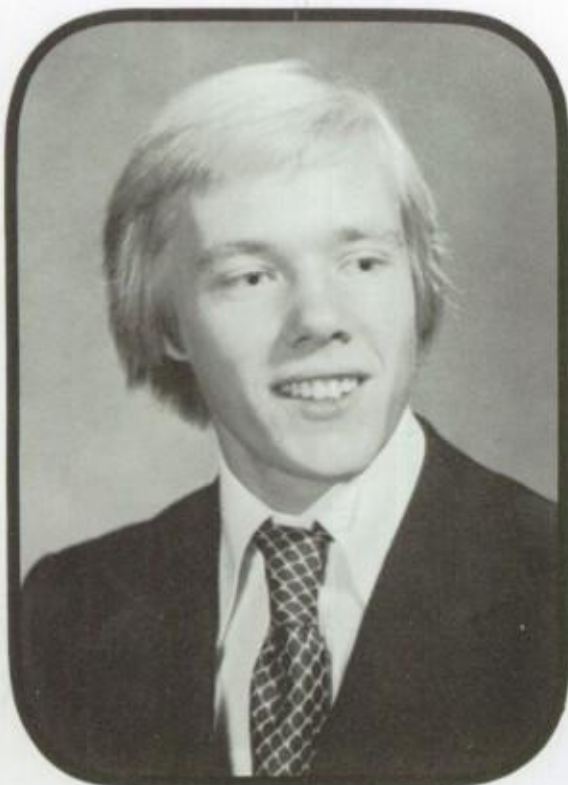

Doreen

(For '78)

Mr. Lund, it's hard to tell how much I think you for an excellent course - which was my first opening to driver hit. - and for being a superior friend on through the year. There can be only one reason why all the students enjoy your courses so much, in fact, and that is the companionship of knowledge and personal experience you give. I hope that you coming years will be the best! Patience

Gaining revenge against Hastings our Panthers suffered only one major defeat to Croton. Pulling together, they convincingly beat all their other opponents. Mark Rookwood achieved the All-County title with his fellow teammates Chuck Nuccio, Kenny Cundari and Nick Salzarulo named to the All-League team. The exceptional 7-1-1 record demonstrated the strength of this fine team.

PHS Field Hockey had a 6-7-2 record this season. For the first time in several years an All-County player was selected from the team, Senior Robin Ferris. As goalkeeper Robin had 139 saves for the year. Team high scorer was Junior Barbara Heim, an All-League honorable mention with seven goals and two assists. Four girls were selected for the All-League team: Meg Wilson, centerhalf, Robin Ferris, goalie, Seniors. Laurie Rockwood, halfback, and Pattie Bianchini, fullback, who are Juniors. We are losing only four Seniors: Mary Casasanta, Amy Brisson, Ali Carroll, and Robin "Legs", "the Bird" Ferris. There is a tremendous team in the wings thanks to some very strong players who will be back next year.

Varsity Volleyball

The girls volleyball team coached by Nina Tallevi had its best season ever. This year they were undefeated in the league and had a 12-2 record overall. The girls went on to the sectionals and beat Blindbrook in the quarterfinals and were beaten by Millbrook in the semifinals who eventually went on to win the Class B Championship.

Diane Cropsey, Amy Messinger and Lori Nowicki made All-League and Rian Fulton made Honorable-Mention. Diane Cropsey went on to make All-County and Amy Messinger made Honorable-Mention. Our junior varsity team went all season without losing a game.

Mr. Lund,
Thank you for being my favorite English teacher. You have taught me more about not only English but also life.

I think you should quit smoking so that you can live to be a ripe old age. You've touched my heart in a very special way. You not only a great teacher but a great Friend.
The best of luck.

Love,
Katie

Mr. Lund,
Now that I am signing this before you correct my exam
I hope my grammar is acceptable. I want to thank you for being such an influence on my sophomore year. I hope to get to see you in Maine. I have one main problem; I don't have my own car yet. many thanks,
Rob Bates

BEST WISHES TO THE CLASS OF 1978!!

Ace likes to babysit for small, greasy neighbors and ask intelligent questions like: "Is that a chair?"

Join the people who've joined the Army.

Since the end of the draft a lot of young people are discovering a good place to invest their time. The Army.

They've come, over 375,000 strong, for things they may not have found anywhere else. Some came for the job training. Where else can you get your choice of hundreds of good jobs? Some, for the chance to travel. Where else can you get to go almost anywhere in the world?

Some came for the personal challenge. Where else can you get as much responsibility right out of high school? Some, for education. Where else can you get such a good start on college?

(With up to 75% of your tuition and fees paid for while you're in the Army.)

Some came for the financial rewards. Where else can you get a starting salary of $374 a month (before deductions) and a raise to $417 in just six months? (Plus free meals, housing, medical and dental care, a 30-day paid vacation every year, and low cost transportation to help you enjoy it.)

And some came for a different kind of reward. Where else can you do a service to yourself while you're being of service to your country?

Dear Mr. Lund,
(I hope my grammar is correct) your class taught me so much and although I didn't appreciate it at the time I do now. Thank you for everything. You are the best teacher this high school ever had. Enjoy all your adventures in Maine and take care!
Love, Ginny

My mother groaned, my father wept,
into this dangerous world
I leapt;
Helpless, naked,
piping loud,
Like a friend hid in a cloud.

William Blake

Mr. Lund, this

Mr. Lund,

Good Luck in

Mr. Lund,
I wish you the best of luck to your quite a number of things in last year's British Lit. Course. I'd thank you very much for teaching me that material. Like the old saying: "It is better to have loved and lost than to have loved at all."

Mr. Lund,

To an outstandingly beautiful person, who has given so much of himself to so many, thanks! I consider myself to be very privileged (2 eyes & a leg) to have been in your class, and I'm only sorry that I never had the opportunity to study British Literature with you. The dedication, ^{best} expresses the thoughts of all of us -

Best of luck in the future. I hope to keep in touch the greatest gift is a but a portion of thyself.

Mr. Lund,

You are one of the greatest, nicest, finest ~~people~~ that I have ever met. You have taught me so much in both British lit. and sophomore English. But your teaching did not stop there, you also taught me much about myself, and for this I could never repay you. I love you dearly and I wish you the best of luck in the future!

Love,

Rob Haas

Dear Mr. Lund,
Until having you this year I had never learned my grammar or understood literature so well. Thank you for being my teacher.

Liz Costello

to Mr. Lund,

Mr. Lund - It is with sadness that I write this because I know that I will greatly miss you in my remaining two years in high school. But I am thankful that I did have a year in your class. You have inspired me to read, and learn through literature. You have opened my mind to different ways of life and you have passed along your knowledge and wisdom to all of us. Thank you for being the special person that you are.

Love,
Alice

Mr. Lund,

This year has been wonderful, and you have made it that way. You are a beautiful person, one who has taught me a great deal. I am really going to miss your smiling face. I deeply wish you the best of luck in the near future.

Love,
Carolyn (T)

Mr. Lund,
I don't think I ever learned more grammar in a year than in your class. I wish you could teach all the classes after mine! Because your the greatest! I will miss you a lot!

Love, Dabin T.

Dear Bill,
Best wishes for success and happiness in all you do. If you grammatically stink, I won't hesitate to "ring you up."
Please come back and visit us often.
Bob O'Seary

Dear Mr. Lund,
It is very difficult for me to express my feelings for you. I've been exasperated at you, (enraged even) in love with you, crazy about you and I have felt great friendship for you. I have the greatest respect for you as a person and a teacher. Good luck in all you do.
Love and thanks,
Sarah Jackson

MR. LUND

The short time I was in your class I was never Bored. I Learned more in that short time than I ever had in any English Class

thank's for everything
FRANK Cuccia

Dear Mr. Lund,

I am very sorry to see you go! I know that you usually only get one great professor in all your years of schooling, and I consider myself lucky to have gotten mine so early! I am also sorry that others will not benefit from your abundance of knowledge. I hope I can come to visit you!

many thanks,
Fred Thomas

Mr. Lund,

I too am leaving this school this year. I must admit this makes me sad in ways I never expected to be for my opinion of this school is quite a bit lower than what I have heard you express. However you have been ^{one of the} ~~and most~~ enjoyable and probably the best teacher I have had ~~the past~~ had since in my years here. I wish you happiness in the future.

Mr. Lund,

I hope my grammar will be acceptable. I can not express my thanks in words to a person who is such an influence to ones life. I am glad that I had the opportunity to be in your class, before you left our class. I learned a great deal this year and hope I wasn't to much of a problem. I would enjoy to visit you in Maine. My Uncle has a house in Maine and I may drive there in the end of June. Sincerest thanks! and good luck.

Cheers!

Charles Borg

Dear Mr. Lund,
I have never learned so much in English untill this year. You are a great teacher ~~but~~ ^{and} a better person to know. I hate to see you leave because I will miss you greatly. Have a great summer and good luck in the future. Thank you for a Terrific year!
Love always Cheryl

Dear Mr. Lund,

Eventhough I was pretty much of a pain to you, I still enjoyed your class alot. I wish you the best of ~~ten~~ luck during your retirement. We'll miss you! Love Always,
Brynn Enloe

This is the beginning of a new day God has given me this day to use as I will.

I can waste it or use it for good what I do today is very important because I am exchanging a day of my life for it.

When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever, leaving something in its place I have traded for it I want it to be gain, not loss...

Good, not evil... success, not failure...

In order that I shall not forget the price I paid for it.

Mr Lund,

I have thoroughly enjoyed the past few years in your classes. You are a dear "Oxford Scholar" to me. Thank you for making class so enjoyable for me. God bless you always.

Affectionately,

Susan Lindsay

Dear Mr. Lund,

I would love to write something having some great philosophical meaning but I can't. I just want to tell you that you made all the difference in the world for me in English.

You are a fantastic teacher and a great person to know. I hope that Scott and I will be able to come visit you this summer, with my family. Just listening to you in class has given me many ideas of how to change my attitude toward people and life. Thank you so much!! It has been a real honor knowing you and I hope to keep in touch. See you in Maine!!

Love always,
Carrie

of worth some day.
I will write. With love,

Chris
